

NC State University At A Glance

Students

- Largest four-year institution in North Carolina
- Largest number of applications from NC students
- More than 31,100 students from all NC counties and nearly 100 foreign countries (23,730 undergraduates; 7,400 graduates and professional)
- 4,478 undergraduate and 1,929 graduate degrees awarded annually
- Bachelor's degrees in 110 fields; master's in 110 fields; PhDs in 61 fields; Doctor of Veterinary Medicine
- 100+ national scholars and fellows in past five years

Faculty & Staff

- 1,825 teaching and research faculty; 339 field faculty (extension)
- 18 members of the National Academies
- 4th among 16 peers in NSF CAREER faculty awards over last four years
- 5,843 administrative and support staff

Rankings

- 2nd best value among the nations' public colleges and universities (Princeton Review, 2006)
- 5th in Best Overall University Value among public universities (U.S. News & World Report, August 2006)
- 27th among research-extensive public universities (TheCenter, 2005)
- 19 graduate programs among top 30 public universities
- 4th among public colleges of veterinary medicine (U.S. News & World Report, 2006)
- 4th in undergraduate engineering degrees and 3rd in total engineering degrees awarded
- 18th among public colleges of engineering in total research expenditures
- Among the 25 'Most Connected Campuses' in the nation (Princeton Review, 2006)
- 18th among public university research libraries in North America

Extension, Engagement and Economic Development

- $1 in State funding for NC State generates nearly $8 in total income for NC
- 1,200 employees stationed in all 100 counties and the Cherokee Reservation
- 13 off-campus regional research and extension centers, 9 field laboratories, and 15 shared research stations

Financials and Private Support

- Total budget: $915M (41% from state appropriations and tuition)
- Total endowment: $380M for fiscal year 2006
- 3rd in corporate fundraising among public universities
- $1 billion Achieve! Campaign has raised over $922M to date

Research

- $302.6M in research expenditures (35th among public universities, NSF Research Expenditures 2005)
- 6th in industry-supported research in the U.S. (among public universities)
- Over 70% of faculty engaged in sponsored research
- Over 2,500 graduate students supported on research and teaching appointments
- 68 established research and service centers

Technology Transfer

- 3rd in Patent Pipeline Power of All Universities in Life Sciences (The Scientist, June 2005)
- 136 patents awarded over the last 3 years; 552 active patents
- 63 spin-off companies and 13,000 jobs based on faculty research
- 3rd most powerful technology owner among high-tech research centers in the Triangle (Triangle Business Journal, Sept. 2005)

Colleges

- Agriculture and Life Sciences
- Humanities and Social Sciences
- Physical and Mathematical Sciences
- Management
- Textiles
- The Graduate School
- Design
- Education
- Engineering
- Natural Resources
- Veterinary Medicine

Centennial Campus

- National model for government, business and university partnerships
- Includes 1,120-acre Centennial Campus and the 214-acre Centennial Biomedical Campus
- Houses Colleges of Textiles, Engineering, and Veterinary Medicine
- Technology Incubator helps entrepreneurs commercialize products and processes
- 61 integrated corporate and government research partners, including 26 incubator companies, and 1,600 employees
- 600-student Centennial Campus Magnet Middle School, as well as the William & Ida Friday Institute for Education Innovation, located on campus

Athletics

- Compete in NCAA Division I
- Member of Atlantic Coast Conference
- 23 sports represented at NC State

Alumni

- 156,297 living NC State alumni
- 95,373 alumni living in North Carolina
- Graduates pump $2.9 billion into NC economy annually