

CHASS and Summer Study Abroad

CHASS faculty will lead 14 study abroad programs this summer and participate in 4 additional programs with other colleges. These programs span the globe from Europe (Oxford, Burgandy, Lille and Paris, Rance, Florence and Perugia, Italy, Vienna, Segovia, Spain and Prague) to Asia (Hangzhou, China and Thailand) to Africa (Arusha, Tanzania) to Latin America (Lake Atilan, Guatemala, Cuernavaca, Mexico, Lima and Cuzco, Peru). They will include academic study ranging from anthropological and archaeological fieldwork, to language study to social work to International affairs.

Complete list

- Vienna, Austria - Lutz Kube
- Oxford, England - Wilton Barnhardt
- Burgundy and Paris, France - Dudley Marchi
- Lille and Paris, France - Diane Beckman
- Guatemala Social Work - Linda Williams
- Guatemala Ethnographic Field School - Tim Wallace
- Florence, Italy - Anne Schiller
- Perugia, Italy - Anna Rita Bonaduce-Dresler
- Cuernavaca, Mexico - Mark Darhower
- Lima and Cuzco, Peru - Kay and Leo Villa-Garcia
- Segovia, Spain - James McConnell
- Arusha, Tanzania - Craig Brookins
- Thailand Archaeological Field School - Troy Case
- Thailand Anthropology Field School - William Wormsley

CHASS participating

Hangzhou, China - Clifford Griffin, Neil Schmid

Prague Institute - International Studies - Rich Clerkin, Public Administration, Sandy Kessler, Political Science

Prague Institute - General Studies - Devin and Marsha Orgeron, English

Prague Institute - Film Studies - Devin and Marsha Orgeron, English

By Dr. Heidi Hobbs

School of Public and International Affairs

CHASS Director of International Programs